Property Description

Escape city life and put your feet up at this remarkable villa. Located just 5 minutes from bustling Camps Bay and only minutes from the CBD, you get to enjoy the peace and quiet, while still having the option of experiencing the local culture. The villa has large windows that not only showcase the beautiful views, but also let in lots of natural light. Ideal for a family group of friends, there is plenty of space for everyone. The large kitchen is beautiful with oak cabinetry and granite countertops. It is fully equipped and boasts both electric and gas stove tops as well as an espresso and filter coffee machine. There is a convenient service window which opens through to the dining area, and has seating for 8 guests. A step down from the dining area is the lounge, which consists of two luxurious couches, a fireplace and a TV with satellite channels. The lounge leads outside onto a lovely covered patio and garden area. Outside, there is dining for 8 guests, a comfortable couch, sun lounger, swimming pool and a lovely garden. There is also a heater for cooler evenings. There is further outdoor dining available in the courtyard. The first bedroom has two double beds, the second bedroom has a double bed and the third has a single bed. The master suite boasts a King-size bed, sea views and has outdoor access onto a balcony with seating for two. Whether staying for a weekend or a week, this picturesque setting will ensure a serene and very comfortable getaway.
