Property Description

A beautifully designed modern two-bedroom apartment in a secure complex in the heart of Camps Bay, the apartment is ideal for couples wanting a comfortable and convenient base from which to explore the Mother City. Offering wonderful views of the Atlantic Ocean and the Twelve Apostle's mountain range, the apartment boasts contemporary-chic décor, modern amenities, and secure parking. Spacious and bright open-plan living spaces greet you on entering the apartment, where a well-laid out lounge has plush custom-made couches in warm, natural hues and a stylish corner couch that is ideal for relaxing with a book. Windows running the length of the apartment flood the space with natural light and offer mountain and sea views. Tiled throughout, a neat kitchen is fully equipped with modern amenities, including fridge/freezer, microwave, and dishwasher. A sleek, marble-topped breakfast bar allows for easy meals and a stylish round glass dining table in the centre of the room seats four for entertaining. The master bedroom offers a king-sized bed, a spacious en-suite bathroom with a bathtub, and single vanity, while the second bedroom faces the Twelve Apostle's mountains, and offers twin beds, ample cupboard space and has a dedicated bathroom with a shower. Décor is crisp and neat, with splashes of colour from bright, floral scatter cushions. The fully secure complex has a communal swimming pool and barbeque facilities for guests to enjoy and there is ample off-street visitor's parking located around the complex. A short drive will take you down to the beachfront where you will find a variety of excellent restaurants, cafés, and bars, and the V&A Waterfront and Table Mountain are within a 10-minute drive.
