Property Description

The house feels like a sanctuary the moment you set foot through the door. Calm, neutral colours are used throughout the interior. Large rooms and high-ceilings add to the sense of space. Sit back, relax and enjoy the breathtaking views of the Atlantic Ocean, Green Point Stadium, Robben Island from the plush lounge after a busy day of meetings, or sightseeing with your friends and family. Enjoy evenings cooking dinner together, order-in, or take a short walk or drive to many of the local great neighbourhood restaurants. The volume and configuration of the home will have you feeling like you have your own private space, even when people are sharing. There is a North facing sun drenched entertainment deck with plunge pool and Barbeque on the first floor. The house has three of the bedrooms and conversation lounge at this level. One of the bedrooms has an en suite bathroom and ocean view, and the two other bedrooms on this level share a bathroom. The second floor hosts the beautifully appointed main bedroom with a four-poster bed, and your own en suite bathroom. The master bedroom has spectacular views across the Ocean and Green Point. The modern open plan kitchen, dining room and lounge is accessed on this level as well. The house is two story, with stairs separating levels and would be suitable to those that are comfortable walking between levels. The kitchen is very well equipped with all modern appliances and conveniences including ice machine and chilled water. Full laundry facilities can be done on site, using the washing and drying appliances.
