Property Description

Whether you enjoy intimate sundowners or peace, tranquillity and privacy you'll love the flow and location of this penthouse. The entire front of the home boasts panoramic 180 degree vistas of the sea, Lion's Head and the Twelve Apostles and can be accessed with foldaway doors to bring the outdoors in. Skylights run the length of the home ensure it is light, bright and offers spectacular views of the mountain peaks. There's an open-plan, well-equipped kitchen and breakfast bar as well as a dining room with seats six, all with breath-taking views of the ocean. The contemporary and welcoming lounge has a large TV, satellite TV and an integrated sound system. The bedrooms are all luxurious; thickly carpeted with underfloor heating and all are elegantly decorated. Decorated in tasteful muted tones, and with top quality percale linen to ensure a relaxing night's sleep, the spacious second and third bedrooms have queen size beds and the main bedroom offers a dreamy king-size bed. There is also a private study with high-speed fibre connectivity in the event that someone needs a quiet space in which to work. Guests can also enjoy use of the outdoor area with an easy to operate 4-burner gas braai/barbecue and take meals on the patio as there is a six-seater outdoor dining suite. This secure penthouse with 24/7 armed security response offers sumptuous seclusion yet is only five minutes from City Bowl and the hustle and bustle of the Camps Bay beachfront with its restaurants, bars, shops and iconic palm-lined beaches.
